-hereinafter referred to as "Conrad"-

One of the essential contributions to our joint success includes presenting all of the articles to our customers correctly.

For efficient item creation we need to receive all of the data and media required in the quantity requested.

This includes providing the following data, for example:

- content (images, videos, etc.)
- documents (data sheets, instructions, safety data sheets, etc.)
- creation data.

You can find out more about this in the Conditions for Product Images (PAB) and under the following link, for example:
